Senate Committee on Scholarships and Student Aid: Report to Senate for 2012-2013

Mandate of the Senate Committee on Scholarships and Student Aid (SCSSA):

To recommend to the Senate, University policy governing undergraduate and graduate fellowships, scholarships, medals, prizes, bursaries, loans and other forms of student aid;

To approve the establishment of fellowships, scholarships, medals and prizes and provide a report, at least annually, to Senate.

To award, either directly or by delegation of power to Faculties and Schools, fellowships, scholarships, medals and prizes, including entrance scholarships, and to report on these awards to the Senate;

To review annually the awards of bursaries, loans and other forms of financial aid to students.

1. Policy Development/Revision

No policy development or revision was undertaken in the 2012-2013 Academic Year.

2. New, Revised and Discontinued fellowships, scholarships, awards, bursaries medals and prizes.

This constituted the majority of the committee's work in 2012-2013. The committee reviewed and approved 58 new awards[1], 39 revised awards and were notified that 8 awards were discontinued. An additional 52 bursaries and scholarships were reviewed and approved when Queen's Theological College reintegrated into Queen's as the School of Religion. A list of all the awards that were reviewed is included as Appendix A.

[1] The term "awards" used in this context is a generic term to refer to fellowships, scholarships, awards, bursaries, medals and prizes.
